

DEPUTY GRAND MARSHALL

FRANK BAGLEY

Frank was born in Manhattan on August 31, 1950 the third child of Peter and Marie Bagley. His Irish roots trace back to County Louth on his grandfather's side and County Clare on his Grandmother's.

Frank's family summered in Rockaway from 1951 until 1966 when they moved from Greenwich Village. He is a graduate of St. Joseph's Grammar School, Bishop Dubois High School and St. Francis College where he received his Bachelor of Science in Accounting in 1976. After graduating from St. Francis he was employed at Goldman Sachs & Co., as a Manager in the Treasury Dept. In 1987 he left Goldman to take a position with the firm of B & G Nurses Registry as their Accountant and Programmer where his wife Jean was a partner. He continued with B & G until it was sold to Medical Staffing Network in 2002 and stayed with MSN until his retirement in 2012.

Frank met and later married Jean Flanagan in 1973. Jean is a graduate of St. Francis de Sales, Stella Maris High School, Lenox Hill School of Nursing and St. Joseph's College. Together they have three wonderful children, Kevin 37, Allison 34, and Brian 32. Kevin is married to Marybeth Tobin and they presented him with three wonderful grandchildren Belle 6 and Sawyer 4.

Frank coached softball with the Rockaway Little League and had also served as Treasurer. In addition he was an Assistant to the Stella Maris Softball team.

Frank's career with the Knights of Columbus started in 1968 when he joined Msgr. Burke/Rockaway Council. He served the Council as their Treasurer, Deputy Grand Knight and Grand Knight. He continues to serve the Council as a Trustee. In addition he has served as Chairman of the Queens County Conference Knights of Columbus. His career with the New York State Council has included various State Chairman positions and Director of their Charitable and Benevolent Program. Frank is currently serving as the State Advocate for New York State.