

Deputy Grand Marshal

Sean Price

Sean Price a native of Kenmare, Co. Kerry, Sean Price is one of five children of Nancy and Mike Price. Sean went to Cahir National School and Holy Cross Secondary School. He played football and hurling for Kenmore Shamrocks GAA.

In 1993, Sean immigrated to the United States, working in carpentry. He started his own company, Sprice Contracting, in 2008 and works doing general contracting. Primarily based in Manhattan, since Hurricane Sandy he has done a lot of work in the Rockaways and Breezy Point.

Sean married his magnificent wife Karen in 2000. They live in Floral Park along with their two wonderful children, Senan 12 and Emer 9.

Sean first became a member of Shannon Gaels, a Queens based athletics club in 2010 and has served as a coach, a committee member and currently Chairman for the past two years. Both of his children are avid footballers.

Sean would like to thank his family and friends for their endless support. He would also like to thank the Queens County Parade for the honor of being named one of the 2015 Deputy Grand Marshal.