

HONORARY MALE GRAND MARSHAL SEAN LANE

Sean Lane is a Senior Financial Advisor at Morgan Stanley and a first-generation Irish American born in New York. His father is from Ballinderreen, Co. Galway and his mother is from Ballyglass, Co. Mayo.

In 1977 at the age of 10, Sean moved with his family from New York to Galway. He grew up and completed school there. In 1993 he emigrated to New York and has been working here in the financial industry here ever since.

Sean is deeply involved in his community. He is vice-chairman of the NYC St. Patrick's Day Foundation. He is on the advisory board of the 69th Regimental Trust, the Irish National Theatre, the Galway University Foundation, and the leadership circle for the Northwell Health Department of Medicine. Since 2011, he has been honored each year as one of the 50 most prominent Irish Americans on Wall Street by Irish America Magazine. Sean Lives in Garden City, NY with his wife Cielo and their two children Ryan and Sarah.

He was awarded an honors Post-Graduate Diploma in Business and a B.A. from the National University of Ireland, Galway. He holds a Certificate in Financial Planning from NYU, and earned both the Chartered Financial Analyst and Certified Financial Planner designations. He is a member of the New York Society of Securities Analysts.

Sean Lane, CFA,CFP,

Financial Advisor, Senior Vice President
Morgan Stanley Wealth Management | Wealth Management Field
855 FRANKLIN AVE. | Garden City, NY 11530
Phone: +1 516 227-2956

FAX: 1 516 568-4572

Sean.Lane@morganstanley.com